from the old country, beg to state that the business of the house at Liverpool will be conducted by its branch.

Those sending for their friends will at once see the great importance of this arrangement, as it will preclude an unnecessary delay of the emigrant. The ships employed in this line are well known to be the first and largest class, commanded by men of experience; and as they sail every five days, offer every facility that can be furnished. With those superior arrangements, the subscribers look forward for a continuation of that patronage which has been so liberally extended to them for so many years past. In case any of those engaged do not embark, the passage money will be refunded as customary. For further particulars, apply by letter, postpaid.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE
Company of New York, No. 56 Wall st.
Net amount of accumulated premiums, $215,571.
This company is organized on the purely mutual principle, and its business is restricted by the charter to the insurance of lives, and granting annuities and endowments.

It commenced, without capital, on the 1st of February, 1843. At the close of its second year, (31st January, 1845,) it had issued 1,086 policies, and its net accumulated premiums was $97,278. At the termination of the third year, on the 31st January, 1846, the whole number of policies issued was $133, and its net accumulated premiums, after paying all losses and expenses, was $215,571; thus exhibiting an increase during the last year of 1,047 policies issued, and $118,278 of accumulated funds, which is rapidly augmenting by an annual income of $250,000, growing out of original and renewed premiums and interest on investments.

Many forfeitures are about to accrue, from failure to pay taxes; many claims, otherwise good, will be barred by adverse possession of three years—that being the limitation; many titles of lands conveyed in the United States, cannot be admitted to record in Texas, for want of proper authentication. Owing to some one or other of these causes, the best lands are in a condition to be loat.

Having made it my business to become acquainted with all the laws relating to titles, and being determined to attend diligently to all claims confided to me, I require, in all cases, an advance in each, sufficient to cover expenses of investigation. When that shall be done, I am willing to take a contingent interest in the lands for attention and services.
